

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

An evaluation unit reads the information from at least one load sensor, measuring the load of the truck and its distribution. The evaluation unit then evaluates the information with a database compiling information on optimizing load distribution for vehicle performance and a database compiling state and federal truck limit laws. Based upon this evaluation, evaluation unit displays a recommendation for optimizing load distribution.

10 N:\Clients\MERITOR\lp00868\PATENT\Intelligent Load Distribution System.doc